Jas. R. Holt and John D. Holt by their guardian, John S. Walker, and their attorneys, W. R. Castle and P. L. Weaver, move for a hearing on the accounts of Bruce Cartwright, trustee under the will of R. W. Holt, and ask that the trustee be allowed to resign and that a new trustee be appointed.

Dr. J. T. Wayson has been advised to take a vacation for the benefit of his health, consequently he will endeavor to get away with his family for Port Townsend this week. The doctor will spend several weeks at his home and return to Honolulu on June 9. During Dr. Wayson's absence from the Islands Drs. Taylor and Hodgins will take care of his patients.

Cayless at It.

Attorney Edgar Cayless has wired the Seattle Times from Washington under date of March 23, that Lilinokalani, having failed to get a pension by vote of Congress, is now preparing a suit which she will bring in the Court of Claims soon, for $10,000,000, that figure being considered by her as a fair price for the Hawaiian crown lands taken over by the Government.
